Du Barry Corsets

Are designed exclusively for and confined to The Plymouth.

We contend that they are the only corsets made that successfully combine fit, finish, durability and comfort with the latest Paris and American ideas.

We will have associated with us in this particular feature of our Women's Furnishings Section for the next two weeks

Miss Darnell

Of New York, one of the most successful experts in this line in the world, ably assisted by Miss Gilmore of Chicago, who will be permanently with us, continually demonstrating the fitness of the Du Barry.

Whether you are at present contemplating a new corset or not, we do not care. All we desire is to allow Miss Darnell the opportunity of correctly fitting your particular figure while she is with us.

We will in this way be able to anticipate your corset wants of the future.

PARLIAMENTARIANS ELECT Have Finished a Profitable Review of Roberts and Mrs. Fox.

The Lewis Parliamentary Law asso ciation held its annual meeting Friday at the residence of Mrs. A. T. Bigelow, 1930 Iglehart street, Merriam Park. The return of some of the older students who have been on the honorary list, but now wish to become active again added to the club interest. Mrs. Lydia P. Williams gave an interesting resume of the forestry congress in Washington, which she attended as commissioner from Minnesota. Mr Jennie Lodor presented an original monolog, displaying in highly humorous fashion the improper use of rules of or-der by presiding officers as well as by members. Mrs. Lodor, who has recent-ly become a resident of Minneapolis, is an accomplished woman, being a musician of ability and a reader. She has just completed a course in parliamentary law with Mrs. Lewis at the Northwestern Bible and Missionary Training school. The report of the secretary showed that regular meetings have been held from October to May and that the year has been one of much interest and im-provement to the members.

The association presented the fifth district of the Minnesota Federation of Women clubs with a mahogany gavel, marked with an engraved silver band. Resolutions of sympathy were extended to M. E. Caulfield and daughter on the death of Mrs. Caulfield, former recording secretary of the association. The following officers were elected: Permanent president, Mrs. Mary B. THREE GOLDEN WEDDINGS

Western Pioneers Celebrate Anniversaries at Belle Fourche. BELLE FOURCHE, S. / D.—Three golden wedding anniversaries have been celebrated in this city in thirty days. The couples are Rev. T. Thirloway and wife, James Newland and wife and John Barr and wife.

James Newland and wife came to the Black Hills as pioneers in 1876, when he made a filing on an irrigation water right which was the first one recorded in Dakota territory. Single-handed he constructed nine miles of ditch, using ox teams for the work. He is known locally as "the father of irrigation."

John Barr and wife came to South Dakota in 1887 and have resided in Belle Fourche eight years. Rev. Mr. Thirloway and wife came to Belle Fourche six years ago.

NOVEL ISSUE RAISED New Phone Company Uses Its Rival to Build Up Its Business.

SIOUX CITY, IOWA .- The courts here will SIOUX CITY, IOWA.—The courts here will be asked to determine a novel question—whether one telephone company can be compelled to extend service to a rival company, which service is used in building up the competitor's business.

The Sioux City Telephone company will soon open an exchange here, in opposition to that of the Iowa Telephone company, which has heretofore had a monopoly. The Sioux City company made a contract for an Iowa phone in its office and then advertised, telling citizens to call up over the Iowa lines and give orders for telephones. The Iowa company peremptorily removed the telephone Saturday and now the Sioux City company will ask the courts to compel it to put it in again.
